Is your copywriter a

PROMPTING PRO?

Check where they stand on this tongue-in-cheek scale of prompting professionalism!

> Beginner: the prompts look like Posts, and the responses look like Comments.

> Practitioner: the prompts look like questions, and the responses look like answers.

> Advanced: the prompts look like instructions, and the responses look like outcomes.

> Expert: the prompts look like specs, and the responses look like software.

> Master: the prompts look like code ... and the responses look like businesses!
